He was running in one direction with me almost catching up to him.
and were coming straight at us!
Connection inward to one's true Self, and connection outward to others who in the long run are part of our Self too.
I once lived in Florida in a then small town called St.
I am reminded of a good friend from college days who was getting her Masters in Art.
An all-night station played gentle music as a man read soothing Bible passages.
But not enough is said about letting go of some of those things which do NOT hang heavy.
I am not yearning for some unrealized dream.
but not enough of you.
And what I collect is something that may be missing from your life.
It's an old "lizard trick."
Although we have to "Let go and let God", we are also told that God helps those who help themselves.
Surrendering its tail in exchange for life sounds too easy, although it is the most logical explanation.
"The riptides, if they're around at all, only pull you out to shoulder-deep water, and I've only seen a shark inside the breakers once.
Love the people you come in contact with each day.
I am meeting them only in tales, where the ugly fogs symbolize the most beautiful princesses, and where the love is one and only indeed sure sword and the most secure shield from all disasters.
For reasons too complex to set out here, I was passing through a phase in which EVERYTHING was changing!
The main problem was, both the skink and the snake were totally oblivious to Patty and me .
I am not yearning for some unrealized dream.
I had a pretty lousy fall.
and totally out-of-the-box.
And, at the same time, the Universe reminded me of that statement about healing energy coming out of my hands.
She told him no, that I had been dating someone from the Junior College in our town but he had recently gone back home to Washington state.
And it was stated that this was a "unique" solution, "out-of-the-box."
The main problem was, both the skink and the snake were totally oblivious to Patty and me .
"The riptides, if they're around at all, only pull you out to shoulder-deep water, and I've only seen a shark inside the breakers once.
These little lizards can also bury themselves in a heartbeat, so maybe the little skink did the same, leaving the snake bewildered.
But you know what they all have in common?
I am very concerned about Audrey Adkinson's entry.
I stood frozen, horrified at the natural order of things.

Because it's a perfect example of the Law of Attraction in action.
Mine were the same old complaints-dirty room, lazy, talks back, etc.
Kinda hard to post first.
I felt alone, frustrated, sad, and afraid.
A daughter she never saw eye to eye with.
The surgery went well; in time my eyes healed, and my world grew brighter.
I had to put my trust in Him, because He was in control and He was the only one who could help me.
But not when I write these Wealthy Soul Newsletters.
" At that moment I knew the most important thing I could do was to repair my relationships with my own children because that is what was missing from my life.

Law of Attraction, or Faith, what we needed has always seemed to arrive.
Guess that counts for something.
Nothing is good or bad - it is just the meaning we give to our experiences.
Michael for the opportunity to share our thought.
Where would we all be if there were no sharing?
I need to learn how to be organized with my time and be more dedicated so that I can receive blessing for being a faithful servant!
As you get rid of any extra pounds, you can always get some new clothes.
He healed my eyes, restoring my sight when doctors believed it was hopeless.
Releasing unhealthy beliefs that stagnate my success is crucial, as well.
We are both retired, so having time to spend with each other is an objective that is being met.
Love the people you come in contact with each day.
After that time, it was accepted that my friend was past the worst of the effects of the overdose, and she was put on a ward for the night.
with DAILY INSPIRATION.
" Nevertheless, I will go along with the majority, only making a point that this skink did not wait until the snake finished striking, but instead targeted the snake's mouth with the tail first.
Slowly the fog grew clearer.
All this in Sweden where I live now.
I had to put my trust in Him, because He was in control and He was the only one who could help me.
It is amazing the natural defenses that God built into animals, and I overlook my defenses and don't use them.
The thing that's missing is easily found.
Lovely to hear the good things all around us.
The main problem was, both the skink and the snake were totally oblivious to Pat ty and me .
I AM ALSO IN SEARCH FOR A PURPOSE.
So, my friend, now that you know that answer, how about this new one?
If so, now's the time to share it in the comments box below.
The should have died of liver failure, but survived with virtual
All my plans and dreams for the future were hanging by a thin thread that could break at any moment.
If we don't take care of our own flesh and blood,, how will we take care of the rest of society?
Perhaps that was an even greater miracle.
I knew He would keep His hand on me, no matter what happened.
I was reminded of the words of Jesus: "Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you .
The last several weeks, I had been living in the middle of my most dreaded night mare.
What comes round goes round.

I have never felt such peace in my soul and body till that time.
It's when we face those attacks head on with the intention of overcoming them th

Thank you for the enlightenment.

You are NOT "easy prey" at all, only if you want to be, and I know that you do not want to be any less than what you are.

I remember on our first date thinking "either he is going to be around 'forever' or he is NEVER going to come eat at Hardee's again"!

Audrey, your comments reveal you as a warm and giving person, a wondrous being.

As the skink as the snake are just symbols in my surroundings, or in other words , my knowledge is too little for guessing how the never unseen beasts could react to survive.

I was reminded of the words of Jesus: "Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you .

It was a simple, small thing, but it still gives me reason to hope as I struggle to understand my place in the world.

The lesson I just learned was how to face the disaster in life and deal with it with my infinite natural power and abilities.

And I recalled that of all my sisters, I was the only one who went round the house singing all the time.

So, the snake jumped probably on its moving tail while the lizard crawled away; without its tail, the lizard is not easy to detect visually anymore and probably could elicit the attack of the snake.

The interesting lesson for me is that the skink willingly lets go of a part of himself in order to be free.

And reclaim what may be missing.
That old albatross sure hangs heavy at our necks.
I took appropriate action, and, soon, she was being received in the Accident and Emergency Dept in the local hospital.
